A SPLENDID DISPLAY.

The Lyon Buggy Company Places One Hundred and Twenty-One.

Buggies and Surries on Exhibition, Attracting Hundreds of People.

Many of them from Adjoining Counties, all being Delighted.

THE REFRESHMENTS ON THE HOUSE.

A representative of the News was in Campbellsville last Saturday and in the afternoon had the pleasure of witnessing a magnificent display of buggies and surries placed on exhibition by The Lyons Buggy Company, an enterprising firm doing an extensive business reaching over ten or twelve counties. The large trade enjoyed by W. B. and R. J. Lyon, who do business over the firm name of The Lyons Buggy Company, is due to honest dealing, courteous treatment, and the handling of the best vehicles placed upon the market.

When the Lyons boys first started in business, ten or fifteen years ago, the firm was known as Lyon & Turner and a little later the name was changed to Turner-Bros. & Lyon, but for three years no one has heard from the firm of the Lyons Bros. and the firm named has been The Lyons Buggy Company.

Mr. R. J. Lyon is the manager and salesman, and a more efficient man could not be found in the State. He knows a buggy at a glance and sells it upon its merits, misrepresenting no part about it. During the whole day Saturday friends were dropping into the establishment, and by 4 o'clock in the afternoon, Mr. Lyon had disposed of nine vehicles and had partially contracted several others.

During the afternoon in order to demonstrate that this firm was selling good work, true work and square work, four gentlemen, Mr. Will Hobson, Mr. Wm. Blair, Taylor Moss and Mr. B. F. Shaw, all first-class citizens, were named by the assembly to go through the establishment, select four wheels from four different buggies and show the audience the character of timber used in the building of them. Wrenches were secured and spoke after spoke was twisted from the wheels and broken into pieces, showing that they were made of the toughest young hickory. The many who witnessed this test were loud in their praises, speaking in the most complimentary terms of the firm and its manner of doing business. While the exhibition was going on the immense throng were served with the finest of cigars, and the cool and refreshing drink, cocoa, was at its command.

All work handled by The Lyons Buggy Company is made according to their direction. They do not buy carloads of vehicles without knowing exactly what they are to receive. Hence, they are in position to guarantee their sales, knowing that every buggy will be just as it is represented.

Last year this firm sold three hundred vehicles, and this year it is to reach the four hundred mark, and the proprietors confidently believe that their expectation will be realized. This is the largest buggy establishment in the Green River section of Kentucky, and its business has been constantly growing from the start. Last year its sales amounted to $35,000 which will be increased this year. The amount of business The Lyons Buggy Company has received is a well merited compliment, and the proprietors feel grateful to their many friends, trusting that they will continue to give them their trade and use their influence in assisting them in expanding their business until it is known and is receiving patronage in territory that it has not yet reached.

During the day Saturday Mr. John F. Morrison, a gentleman, representing the Cane Valley Manufacturing Company of Cincinnati, assisted the Messrs. Lyon in showing and explaining the different makes of buggies in their establishment. It required a great effort upon the part of the Committee to break the spokes, and while the work was going on one of the gentlemen said to Mr. Morrison: "Bring out a wheel that we can smash easy." "It can not be found in the house," said Mr. Morrison. It was certainly a profitable day for The Lyons Buggy Company, and while many sales were made, better results will follow, as the demand for buggies increases.

Besides handling buggies and other vehicles, this company carries a large stock of saddlery, harness, collars, whips, lap robes, pads, etc., and, in this line it does an immense business. Persons who have not gone through the building would be astonished to see the many fine saddles and the large number of the finest sets of harness, and every thing else carried by a first-class saddlery establishment. They also carry an undertaker's goods, keep a horse and can be ready in a few minutes after receiving an order for a burial outfit.

W. R. and R. J. Lyon are natives of this place, and the citizens of Columbia and the people of Adair county are especially interested in the record they are making as successful business men. They are now on the shady side of Easy Street and if good health continues to bless them, besides leaving their posterity good names, a sufficient amount of this world's goods will be laid up to comfortably keep them.

HELD WITHOUT BAIL.

The examining trial of Henry McGowan, who stabbed and killed Loezer Dunbar, in Russell county, a few weeks ago, came up at Jamestown last week. There were a great many witnesses introduced, requiring two days to try the case.

The State, as we are informed, made out a strong case and the defendant was held to await the action of the grand jury without bail.

It will be remembered that McGowan, immediately after the killing, fled the county, going to some point in the West. Two weeks ago he passed through Columbia, in company with a young man about twenty years old, en route to Jamestown, the young man claiming when they reached their destination that he had arrested McGowan in another State, and was there for the purpose of turning him over to the authorities. McGowan apparently is only about seventeen years old, and the boy who delivered him to the jailer of Russell county appeared to be twenty or twenty-one years of age. It is also reported here that the arresting party and McGowan are cousins, and that there was no arrest, but a delivery to get the reward for McGowan's benefit. This statement may or may not be true, we merely give it as we have received it.

The young man who was killed was a son of Mr. James Dunbar, a former Sheriff of Russell county, who will vigorously prosecute McGowan.

FRIDAY EVENING'S RECITAL.

The entertainment given by Miss Katie Murrell, reader, and Miss Mabel Atkins, pianist, drew a large audience to the Lindsey-Wilson Chapel last Friday evening. These young ladies are talented and in the respective work they invariably please. Miss Murrell gave five numbers in an easy, graceful and forcible manner, the audience manifesting its appreciation at the close of each selection. Miss Atkins rendered charmingly four difficult pieces of music to perfection. Miss Penland and Miss Shannon came in for their share of praise for the proficiency of these two young ladies. At the close of the entertainment the performers were warmly congratulated by a number of friends, and at intervals during the evening, they received many flowers and other tokens of appreciation.

DIED AT JAMESTOWN.

Mr. J. A. Williams, who, a number of years ago, was a prominent attorney of the Jamestown bar, died at his late home, in that place, last Thursday morning. He was seventy-three years old and was well-known throughout Russell county. During his life he filled a number of positions of trust, and some years ago he served his county as county judge. He was a victim of disease incident to old age. He left no children, but is survived by his wife, who is in delicate health. He was recognized as a man of sterling integrity and was unusually popular among his acquaintances.

KINGDOM OF MOTHER GOOSE.

This very amusing play was given at the Lindsey-Wilson Chapel Saturday evening by a number of the younger pupils. The scene was laid in the woods and the forest representation was perfect. The play is full of fun, the audience being overthrown with laughter from the time the curtain was raised until the drop fell. The perfect rendition of this play is due to Miss Thomas, teacher of the primary department. There were about twenty-five characters and not a mistake made.

EXAMINATION

The county examination for teachers will be held at the M. and F. High School Friday and Saturday May 15 and 16, 1908. Examination will open promptly at 8:30 Friday morning.

Georgia R. Shelton, C. S. S.

On Tuesday, the 5th, Mrs. B. T. Vaughan, widow, died at her home near Bryan, Russell county, death resulting from infirmities old age. She was seventy-eight years old, a member of the Methodist church and a most estimable christian lady. She enjoyed good health until a few days before her death but sunk rapidly after she was afflicted. The surviving children are Mrs. Walter Wright and Mrs. Mary Huddleston, of that vicinity. Mrs. Wm. Sharp of Jamestown, Mrs. Ruth Dwyer, of Edmonson, Mrs. Florence Lapaley, Messrs Wm. and Logan Vaughan, Dallas Tex., Mr. John Vaughan of Glasgow and Mr. B. H. Vaughan, of Rocky Hill. Her life's work has ended but her influence will live in the hearts of her children and those who knew and loved her. Mr. John and B. H. Vaughan who heard of her sickness died but to reach the home in time to see their mother while living, but were too late, the death angel had been there.

The Board of Trustees are making a special effort to improve and beautify the city cemetery. It is the intention to press the work until the cemetery is put in first class condition. Recognizing the fact that the ladies can be of great assistance to them, and in order that a systematic organization of the ladies, who are interested may be made, the board of trustees have authorized us to make the following announcement: A meeting of the ladies who are interested in improving and beautifying the city cemetery will be held at the office of Mrs. George Shelton, in the court house at 2 o'clock p. m. Thursday May 14, 1908. All the ladies, who are interested are invited to be present.

Mr. D. L. Mooneyham, of Trenton, Texas, a former citizen of Adair county, writes us that every thing looks gloomy in the county in which he resides. Farmers are all behind with their work on account of too much rain. Corn is up and has been plowed over. About one-half cotton crop planted.

The new comers from Adair county struck Texas in a dull time. It was dry when they came. If they are to stay in Texas when it is dry and they say they are, I am sure it will stick to them when it is muddy." Mr. Mooneyham says he wants to hear from Sparkville and Weed often through the News.

Mr. T. F. Collins, of this city, received the good news, a few days ago, that his son, Mr. C. L. Collins, of Elida, N. M. was happily married on the 17th day of April to Miss Willie May Kerkham, of Fortida, N. M. Chester, as we all know him, is a young man full of energy, backed by the best of home training and no one who knows him doubts his ability to succeed in the affairs of life. The young lady who won his heart and hand is one of Portales favorites and in the beginning of their journey through life wishes. The News extends its good wishes, trusting that life may be full of profit and pleasure to them.

For a week or ten days, beginning next Monday, twelve Adair county citizens will occupy a room at the court-house. They will want to interview quite a number of young men in the county, all receiving special invitations. They propose to give to the young men an equal chance, and would rather they would quietly call, not make a grand rush and try to force the door of the room down in order to gain an entrance. First to come, first to be served.

Mr. Brack Sanders and Miss Pattie Borders, both of Campbellsville, eloped for Tennessee last Sunday and by the time this paper reaches its readers they will be man and wife. They passed through Columbia Sunday about 11 a. m., en route for Tennessee county. Mr. Sanders is a brother of Prof. J. H. Sanders, principal of the Cane Valley School. Miss Borders is a daughter of Mr. Lee Borders. It is said to be a popular couple.

The patrons of the Lindsey-Wilson will be glad to know that the services of Miss Shannon and Miss Thomas have been secured for the next school year. They are excellent young ladies and thorough in their respective work. Miss Elliott, another very efficient teacher will also return. Miss Penland, the popular music teacher, has not as yet given a decision, but it is believed that she will decide to accept.

The farmers of this county are perhaps fatherly homes with their children than they have been for many years. It has been raining two or three days in each week for the past six weeks. It is said that there are not a dozen farmers in the county who have a planted corn, and but little ground has been plowed. It now looks as though the corn crop of this county will not be in before the first of June.

Eldest Mont Gabbert will preach at Mt. Pleasant next Sunday.

ROBERT GRAVES COFFEY

A Prominent Young Man of Columbia, After a Long Illness, Meets Death.

EVERYBODY WHO KNEW HIM MOURNS.

Last Saturday forenoon at 10 o'clock, after an illness of several years, Robert Graves Coffey, one of Columbia's most prominent and highly respected young men, the fourth son of Joseph and Jennie Coffey, calmly closed his eyes in death.

It was known throughout this county that the deceased could not recover, as he was a victim of pulmonary trouble; and while the family and his friends had nerved themselves for the breaking of life's cord, the hearts of the people of this community held when the intelligence of his demise was announced.

"Bob" Coffey was a true Kentucky gentleman. He stood for the right, and the littleness in any man met his disapprobation. When in health he met you with a smile and invariably his words of greeting were those of cheer. No young man has died in this community for years that brought more universal sorrow, genuine sympathy being expressed in every household for the bereaved parents and the four surviving brothers and other relatives.

The deceased was born in Columbia August 27, 1872, hence he was but he was 36 years old had he lived until his next birthday. At the age of 16 he made a profession of his faith in Christ, united with the Presbyterian Church, and was faithful to the end.

For many years he was a book-keeper in the Bank of Columbia, and was very efficient in his work, and universally liked by the directory and the patrons of the institution.

Several years ago he concluded that he could better his condition by living elsewhere, and he went to Dallas, Texas, where he accepted a position in a large jewelry establishment, and where his many conduct and genial disposition soon made him a host of warm, personal friends.

Ten months ago he became too weak to work and returned home, and after spending a few weeks with his parents he went to the mountains of Tennessee, hoping that a higher altitude would be beneficial to his wasting constitution. He returned home seven weeks ago, resigned to die surrounded by his loved ones.

The funeral services were held at the Presbyterian Church Sunday afternoon, conducted by Rev. A. R. Kasey, assisted by Rev. E. T. Williams and Dr. E. Kasey's discourse there was scarcely a dry eye in the church, which was inadequate to hold many who arrived to gain admission.

The service concluded, all that was mortal of this beloved young man was laid to rest in the city cemetery, his grave being covered with beautiful flowers.

In testimony of the high esteem in which he was held in Texas, we publish here a letter from his employer, received by the deceased the first of April.

DALLAS, TEX., April 1st, 1908.

Dear Coffey: Marvin has just come in from Mr. Wheat's and tells me you are very, very sick. This is very sad to me as I had heard that you were much better and expected to return to Texas this Spring. Coffey, I am sure you are ready to go, God-bye, dear old Coffey, may the spirit of Christ comfort and strengthen you and those of your loved ones, for He is able to keep that which we have committed with Him until that day.

Your True Friend, ARTHUR A. EVERTS.

A CARD.

It is with much pleasure that this opportunity affords me to express my heart-felt gratitude to my unknown friend who reported me dead in last week's issue. Notwithstanding, if I am dead it is out of my knowledge, and as I am the last thing I intend to do, I am well and hearty.

Etta Reynolds.

Mrs. Margaret Turpen, who was the widow of Mr. Irvine J. Turpen, died at New Wee Valley last Saturday, aged 52 years. She was a prominent member of the First Presbyterian Church, Louisville. Her husband was reared in this place, and the tragic ending of his life, in Cincinnati, ten or twelve years ago, is well remembered.

During this dark, gloomy and rainy weather, it is well enough to look for sunshine. It may be late, but it is sure to come. The clouds are passing as are the things of all the earth, and the sun is behind the moving darkness, but some time our anxiety will be realized and the glorious light will shine again.

Don't be uneasy because the date on your paper does not correspond with your payments. We have all credits to our books and just as soon as this work can be reached the dates will be changed. For the last few weeks we have been crowded with work and no extra help in reach, this work could not be done.

The Lindsey-Wilson School, which has been very successful this year, will close the present term the 19th of this month. The commencement exercises promise to be very entertaining, and much preparation is being made for the other exercises. The dates for each entertainment is published elsewhere in the News.

The M. and F. High School has been taught this year by Prof. Darnall and his assistants to the perfect satisfaction of all the patrons. The school will close about the 21st of this month and in the meantime active preparations are being made for the final exercises. The evenings for each entertainment are named in this paper.

Mr. Harvey Holt, the new mail contractor is having his hawks built at Danville. They will be completed by the first of July, the time he is to begin his contract. Mr. Holt's son was here Thursday of last week looking after other matters in connection with the line.

The Elrod Co., who are here for the purpose of manufacturing barrel headings have been delayed in their work, a piece of their machinery having failed to reach them from the factory. They have now eighty thousand standard staves on the yard, and timber comes in daily.

Ade Willis, who killed a young man in this county named McClister, four years ago, and was sent up for life, returned home last week. He is in a low state of consumption and was sent home to die among his people.

FOR RENT.—I desire to rent by store house in Jamestown. It joins the Patterson Hotel. It is large, 60x120 and very conveniently arranged. It is the best stand in Jamestown. Address 27-28 Mrs. Belle Patterson.

Mr. J. L. McLean is erecting a two-story residence on a lot near the home of M. G. T. Flowers. It is our understanding when completed it will be for rent.

WANTED.—Live Red and Gray Foxes. Will pay $1.25 to $2.00 each. W. T. HODGEN, Box 232, Campbellsville, Ky.

Adair circuit court will open next Monday. A large crowd is expected in town, and, doubtless a great deal of stock will be on the market.

Poor Paint is dear at any price, and cheap paint is invariably poor. True economy lies in using Green Seal—W. F. Jeffries & Sons.

Stop right now! There's nothing cheaper than good paint having, and none better than Green Seal Paint—W. F. Jeffries & Sons.

Lawyers about town have been busy, taking depositions for several weeks, trying to get cases ready for the coming term of circuit court.

Take Warning, don't be hoodwinked by the best, it's always cheap. Use Green Seal Paint.—W. F. Jeffries & Sons.

Mr. Rufus Price was in Louisville last week and sold his crop of tobacco. It brought from $10.75 to $14.75 per hundred.

Experiments are costly. Use only the best, it's always cheap. Use Green Seal Paint.—W. F. Jeffries & Sons.

Regular meeting of Columbia Lodge, No. 96, F. and A. M., will meet next Friday evening.

J. S. Breeding & Son sold Owen Hardesty last week, 140 hogs at $4.40 per cwt.

Teachers examination next Friday and Saturday.

CREED HASKINS.

Prominent Citizen of Campbellsville, Met Death Last Wednesday at the Noon Hour.

WELL-KNOWN IN ADAIR COUNTY.

The intelligence of the death of the subject of this notice reached Columbia last Wednesday night, the end having been reached about the noon hour.

Mr. Haskins was well and favorably known throughout Adair county, having been a traveling salesman out of Louisville for nearly forty years. He was a man of high character and very much liked, not only by his home people, but by many friends throughout the State. He was confined to his room about five months, and for several weeks it has been known that he could not recover, being sorely afflicted with a complication of diseases.

The deceased was about 66 years old and was born and reared at Haskinsville, Green County, but in the early sixties he became a citizen of Campbellsville. Before taking up his residence in his adopted home he was happily married to Mrs. Bertie Lewis. In the passing of Mr. Haskins, Campbellsville loses one of her most prominent citizens, the wife an attentive and loving husband, and the Baptist Church one of its most zealous members.

The News desires to extend its profound sympathy to the sorrowing wife and all other relatives.

NOTICE TO TAXPAYERS.

All persons owing taxes for the year 1908 are requested to come forward and settle at once and save trouble and cost both to you and myself. My office is to be open on all week days and a list of appointments will be made in each Magisterial District later, for the purpose of receiving your taxes.

CANE VALLEY DEPARTMENT

Substitute For

The Cane Valley School Journal

I. L. MILLER, Editor.

OUR MOTTO: "A Progressive Cane Valley."

WALTER BOWEN, Ass't. Editor.

LOCALS

A GOOD ONE.

One day last week, during the recitation of the Psychology class in Prof. Kerr's room, the following little incident took place: Prof. Kerr, after delivering a most interesting lecture on the art of teaching, requested the pupils to be sure and read Christ's Sermon on the Mount. Whereupon Prof. Bowen, not knowing exactly where to find it, asked if he could find it in White's Art of Teaching.

Bro. Z. T. Williams preached three most excellent sermons at the Christian Church at this place on last Saturday evening, Sunday morning and Sunday afternoon. The congregation was large at each service, and the singing excellent. We wish we had Bro. Williams with us every Sunday. Mrs. Williams accompanied him, and every one was so glad to see this most excellent lady and Godly woman at her accustomed place of service.

The next issue of the Cane Valley School Journal, will be its last. To those who are interested in the Cane Valley High School and the upbuilding and the advancement of the cause of education in this community, the next and last issue of our paper will be by far the most important and interesting yet issued. It will contain a complete record of the school, the winners of the Declamatory contests, the honor roll, the benefits the school has given to Cane Valley and an account of the closing exercises.

The closing exercises of school will be held at the Christian Church, beginning Wednesday evening May 13th, at which time the Declamatory Contest among the young ladies will be held. The young ladies are all much interested and it promises to be a very interesting affair. On Thursday evening the young men's Declamatory contest will be held. On Friday evening the final exercises will be held. This occasion will consist of talks of an educational character, the future of the C. V. H. S., and other matters of interest to all who are concerned in Education. The awarding of medals, reading of the honor roll will also take place. An excellent musical program has been arranged for each evening. Let every one who is interested in the C. V. H. S., and in the cause of education be sure to attend these exercises. You are cordially invited to attend.

DID YOU KNOW?

That Prof. I. L. Miller hopes to get a new hearing and has filed a powerful petition, asking for same.

That Prof. Walter Bowen says that he has found the sweetest thing in the world.

That when school closes there will be another permanent resident of Cane Valley, according to Miss Lizzie Blevins.

That a large number of frogs have withdrawn from the Baptist and Christian churches and have organized a Methodist and Presbyterian church combined.

That Mr. George Sublett has the literary fever and some alarming symptoms have developed. A few weeks ago he immortalized Frog Avenue in a powerful article, interpreting the language of the frogs.

That Walter Sprowles has been wearing a sad expression for several days. Take courage, Mr. Sprowles, for a sad negative often develops into a joyous affirmative.

That W. W. Kerr being crippled did not save the C. V. H. S. boys from defeat last Saturday.

That "Uncle" Joe Rice is fast becoming one of the best men in Cane Valley. A bad case of gripe caused his conversion.

That "Uncle" John Will Sublett now wears a benign expression and does not tell more than one joke a day.

That Miss Emma Burress says that it is sad indeed, but she cheerfully accepts the decree of fate.

That Miss Myrtle Heizer grows more cheerful as school draws to a close. Some one is waiting to give a glad welcome. Her motto is: Business first, afterwards pleasure.

That Prof. J. H. Sanders has requested W. W. Kerr to allow him to go fishing again this week. He promises that he will walk and take a rope with him with which to anchor himself.

That the boys and girls of the C. V. H. S. will have a grand picnic next Saturday. All quarrels will be made up, broken hearts mended and promises made never to be broken, says Prof. I. L. Miller.

That Misses Maude Bumgarner, Mary Sublett, Fon Hancock, and Mr. Bingham Moore each won a prize in spelling last month.

That many fond hearts in Cane Valley are growing sad over the thought that they must soon part, and that the happy present will soon only be a sweet memory. But that picture will forever adorn the halls of memory, and what is now a fond hope shall be a grand reality, according to Prof. W. W. Bowen.

That Miss Lizzie Blevins says that if she crosses the river to the better land while residing in Cane Valley that she will not know the difference, but O what a change if she were to take the other route.

That Miss Lora Miller has a gallant escort who each day sees her safely over the C. V. H. S. bridge, much to the sorrow of Miss Emma Burress.

That Mr. Leslie Tupman several days this week has allowed the fire to run very low in his engine and otherwise neglected his duties about the mill much to the displeasure of the other proprietors of the mill. That is right, Mr. Tupman, faint heart never won fair lady. Miss Mary Hancock's version.

That the si-g-h-t of Cane Valley has had some pictures made. These pictures are on exhibition at Mr. Wilson's store, and may be seen without extra charge, but Mr. Wilson will not be responsible for any injury to the vision caused by viewing the pictures.

CANE VALLEY, THEN AND NOW.

Editor of News:

I will give a short history of Cane Valley as it was in 1855 and as it is to-day. Also the state of the colored slave at that time and as he is to-day.

In 1855 the writer had a post-office established and gave it the name, Cane Valley and had himself appointed post-master. At that time there was not a post-office between Columbia and Campbellsville, a distance of 20 miles. Farmers were compelled to ride ten and twelve miles for their mail. Now there are five post-offices immediately on the pike between the two towns. In 1855 there was but one storehouse and that owned by my father, J. F. Bridgewater, his dwelling and the cabins for his slaves, 30 in number, were all the houses in Cane valley at that time. There were ten persons in my father's family and they and his slaves constituted the population. Now there are three dry goods stores, one grocery, one drug-store, one general repair store, one stove and tin shop, one broom factory, two blacksmith shops, one millinery store, one steam saw and roller mill, one planing-machine, four churches and one bank, and more business than in Chicago, I mean Chicago, Marion county. We have a high-school and a good many modern built houses with a population between two and three hundred. Here I might stop, yet I can not forbear a few parting words. It is good on this holy day not only to call up those we love and venerate, but we have anticipation of reason to fear.

Look at the huge heaps of trophies piled upon the tombs of our glorious dead: then say we have no charge to keep, no bequest to defend? Shall the dawn of some future day find our watch towers abandoned—our altars overthrown, our free institutions trodden by foreign hirings or desolated by internal strife? Shall our onward course be checked? Shall our high fortunes be mared in the very spring of unclouded glory? No, perish the thought forever.

If there are dangers abroad, they threaten the whole country alike, and that there is an evil in our borders is well-known to all. I mean the Pandora-box of northern fanaticism on the subject of the race question. To-day there are more slaves in Lowell and Nashua alone than there were in all the Southern States—slaves of their own color—white slaves. But let sickness or old age come, and they are kicked into the gutter to starve or sent to the almshouse to die. Could the fanatics have pointed to a single case of that kind among the blacks of the South? Didn't they know that the master protected and provided for his slaves, in sickness, in health, in infancy and in old age? But slavery was an evil they said. An evil to whom, the master? If to any body it was not an evil to the slave for his master to sit in his counting room from morning till night to earn the wherewithal to enable his slaves to live like nabobs, in comparative idleness. It was not an evil to the slave to have all his wants supplied. It might have been an evil to the country and to the master, but a blessing to the slave. But slavery perished, like the insidious vine which wound its treacherous folds around its trunk—clung to its wide spreading branches, throwing fetters of bondage around its green leaves till the monarch of the forest perished in the poisonous chain of the twining ivy.

SUNFLOWER PHILOSOPHY.

The only way to win in law suit is to keep out.

No boy is thoroughly satisfied unless he owns a shepherd dog.

You always know what some people will speak about when you see them approaching; the weather.

What has become of the old-fashioned man who put on his "thinking-cap" when confronted with a problem?

"A woman's faults may not be as bad as a man's," we heard a man say to-day, "but they are quite as trying to him as his are to her.

Some men are naturally meddlesome, and do not know it. Look yourself over. Do you butt in, and make yourself unnecessary enemies?

Staying up late is not what it is cracked up to be. You are having more fun than anybody in the world if you can go to bed at 9 o'clock and fall asleep the moment your head strikes the pillow.—Acheson, (Kan.) Globe.

WAS PROGRESSING NICELY.

The story is told concerning a girl that she refused to marry a most devoted lover, a very free spender, until he had amassed $4,000. After some expostulation he accepted his fate and set to work to save the money.

About three months after this the avaricious young lady, meeting her lover, asked:

"Well Charlie, how are you getting along?"

"Oh very well indeed," Charlie returned cheerfully; "I've saved $17."

The young lady blushed and looked down at the toes of her boots, and stabbed the inoffensive earth with the point of her parasol. "I think," she said faintly—"I think, Charlie, that's about near enough.

At a meeting of the Cabinet it was determined that Secretary Taft should go to Panama to negotiate a number of questions between the United States and Panama and Columbia. A permanent treaty in regard to the concessions from Panama is involved. The Secretary will sail April 30, and he will be gone about three weeks.

The almost complete elimination of the Burley tobacco crop in Central Kentucky this year has forced the farmers to grow some other staple on their broad acres, which will bring them in a reasonable return. A great many are turning toward the humble potato, according to reports to the State Department of Agriculture. For their benefit Commissioner of Agriculture M. C. Rankin is issuing from this office a "Special Potato Bulletin," entitled "Kentucky as a Potato State," which is designed, as the foreword says: "For the benefit of the farmers of Kentucky, especially for those of the Burley tobacco district who have decided to cut out the 1908 crop of tobacco."

SOCIAL EQUALITY.

New York, April 23.—Social equality and intermarriages between the races were advocated at a banquet of the Cosmopolitan Society of Greater New York, where twenty beautiful white girls sat side by side with big, black negroes

Whether by accident or design all of the white women found, when they reached the tables in Peck's French restaurant in Fulton street, that the seats beside them were to be occupied by the negroes—many of them as black as tar—some blacker.

Miss Mary 'White Overton, whose father is proprietor of the Hotel St. George, in Brooklyn, was the only woman to occupy a seat by the speakers chair, and negroes were clustered all about her.

Miss Isabel Eaton and Miss Marion Dooley, prominent young girls from Green Point, were lucky enough to hang on to a big black man, who had been a soldier and in the battle of San Juan Hill. They had a most enjoyable evening.

At the same table were seated Mrs. J. W. Gates and daughter, Bessie, the latter a very attractive blonde, was gowning in a blue creation slightly decollete. They are prominent society people of Seattle.

Mrs. A. Stirling arrived too late to land a coon, so she had to take what was left—an Indian—the only one in the bunch.

Mrs. Landis, a prominent Brooklyn woman, landed the booby prize, a table which was surrounded by ten big negroes and their lady loves. Mr. Landis was also present and had a g-r-a-n-d time.

Rev. Madison Peters, who had intended to speak to the society, could not stand the sight of the dark cloud, and made his escape through a side entrance.

WED., MAY 13, 1908.

The Republican Conventions held at London and Louisville last week were not in keeping with the doctrine Republicans preach, if reports are true. For years Republicans of this State have been denouncing frauds, clamoring for a free vote and a fair count; outspoken in their disapproval of machine methods parading before the people the sins of the Democratic party as they pretended to see them. How is it now? What think the people any way? Have the Republican leaders been acting hypocrisy, or have they suddenly fell from their lofty perch and sunk into the slums of the sins they denounce? This may be a question with some of the dear people, but to our mind time never existed when they wanted a free vote and a fair count unless such action would land them winners, and in Kentucky it would not ordinarily do so. The Convention at London, to select delegates to the National Convention, was one which discredited all pretensions to fairness on the line of a free vote and a fair count. The adherents of Edwards and Taft took possession of the convention and run roughshod over the Matthews and Fairbanks people which met with a vigorous and unsuccessful protest. After disposing of every proposition to suit themselves adjourned. At this juncture the other side undertook to hold a convention, but were left in darkness by the lights being turned off. It is reported threatening language and demonstrations of force were resorted to in order to gain a victory. At Louisville the State convention was equally one-sided and fully under the control of their new boss, Marshall Bullitt, who put to the wall the other boss, Wm. O. Bradley. In the history of Kentucky politics the recent primary in Louisville, the conventions in London and Louisville take the lead in high-handed frauds, bossism and machine methods. In the face of such actions, Republican against Republican, committing frauds, ignoring the rights they ought to respect, acting under their own party rules, who can credit that party with sincerity in its clamor before the people for a free vote and a fair count—for better political living. The delegates to the national convention from this district are E. P. Combest, Casey county, and Emil Helborn, of Bell county. The State-at-large, Gov. A.

E. Willson, Marshall Bullitt, Judge Burnam and G. W. Lane, colored. Instructed for Taft.

We believe that men should be as honest and act as honorable in a political contest as in the ordinary avocations of business. Dishonesty, debauchery and frauds can not be defended by any upright man, can not be justified by emergency nor become the measure of righteous results. To walk in the ways of political virtue, to shun the paths that lead to frauds, you must have leaders true to the great principles of justice, men who will not dirty their hands to make money or reputation. This time, this year, the Democrats will have such a man as they have had before—a man whose living is in keeping with his preaching, who has been before the people long enough to be known and is known to be true in every particular. W. J. Bryan is the man, and to his preaching, his living, is largely due the efforts in States and nation to sweep cheats and frauds from power and to have an honest accounting. He is the man to our liking and he suits millions of voters.

Where is that magnetic leader of Republicans in Kentucky, the man who fought the battles of the party for years and largely responsible for the strength and growth of Republicanism in this State, Wm. O. Bradley? Because he espoused the cause of Fairbanks, the man that Republicans of this State should have supported, on the grounds of close relationship, of intense interest and efforts on his part to aid Kentucky Republicans to win their battles, the Senator elect has had his toes turned to the daisies—to recognize and honor a new convert at the pie counter, whose methods of warfare can not be accepted by men who believe in a fair square deal. In the history of our country it has no parallel in any of the States.

We have received a copy of the first issue of the Marion County Leader which made its appearance at Lebanon last week. It is an eight column four page sheet, well gotten up mechanically, and contains much interesting matter. The paper is edited by Mr. C. A. Johnston, who is assisted by Mr. R. C. Blanford, well-known here, and Mr. Arthur Smith, who is the business manager. It is a Republican sheet, and aside from its politics, the first issue makes a good impression.

Adair county, not so fortunate as some other localities in the Eleventh district in the distribution of honors in the Republican conventions, yet not neglected, Hon. M. Rey Yarberty was named as an alternate delegate at-large. While this does not carry responsibility, yet it is an honorable recognition of high party standing and a compliment to ability, as we understand

Russell county was honored in the London convention by the election of one of her best sons, Mr. Lilburn Phelps, elector for this district. He will doubtless bear the honor untarnished.

Senator elect Bradley was put on the cooling board by a Bullitt, and newly made according to Requirements.

WEBB'S X ROADS.

We have plenty of lagrippe in this neighborhood.

Farmers are becoming very much discouraged on account of so much rain. But very little corn has been planted yet and several of our farmers are not through breaking their ground.

Wheat looks very promising.

We will have plenty of fruit in this neighborhood if it is not killed later.

Marcellus and Cromwell Wilson, of this place, were at the Russell Springs last Tuesday.

The boys of this place have organized a base ball team, and are getting along nicely.

Mrs. F. A. Webb and her little daughter, Clara, started for the West last Thursday to visit relatives. They will probably be gone three months.

The singletree and spoke factory at Dunnville has closed down business, but will open up again when we elect W. J. Bryan this fall.

Miss Jessie Weir, of this place, is visiting relatives on Luttrell's Creek.

MELL.

Jessie Meadows, son of S. J. and Liddie Meadows is very low at this writing with consumption and has been since January.

Mr. Evan Keltner, of Keltner, bought of Will Rodgers 1 acre of land and is going to establish a dry good store, of which the community will appreciate highly.

The Royer Wheel Comany has got a fine lot of hickory logs on the yard.

Farmers are getting very much behind with their work on the account of the cool wet weather.

Wheat is looking very well in this community.

Nobody is done planting corn but uncle Jimmie Morrison.

Tobacco plants are plentiful in this part.

Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Russell of Pierce, were visiting their daughter Mrs. Rodes Dohoney of Keltner, Saturday and Sunday and reported a nice time.

Mrs. Blaydes, of Mell community, fell dead Wednesday night May 6th, 1908 at her son's house, Curt Blaydes, being a victim of heart trouble. She was 65 years of age and a member of the Methodist church.

ARWED---The German Coach Horse!!

THIS HORSE, GREAT IN BREEDING, SIZE, FORM AND STRENGTH, IS the one so well adapted to meet the needs of this section. Size, form and action are the points of usefulness that every breeder should consider and in ARWED you find every desirable make-up, including style and speed. The day for mere appearance is fast passing and the worth of a horse, like that of man, will be measured by what he will do.

ARWED'S first colts are now two years old, and out of all, there is not an underling in his get. They have the finish of the fancy saddle bred, the form of a show-horse and the power of the draft. It costs no more to raise a good horse—a horse of good size—than it does to produce the underlings. Ready for market, ready for use in every emergency are the German Coach Horses.

PEDIGREE: Arwed, No. 2783, sired by Achim, No. 1059, he by Achilles, No. 1313; dam, Ardo No. 1000, by Agammennon, No. 560. Arwed is a beautiful brown horse, 16 hands high and weighs 1250 pounds. He is a muddle in size, action and style. You must see him to appreciate his worth. Fee, $10.00 to insure a living colt.

Jack Chinn

Is a black jack with mealy points, not too large, neither too small, but is known to be one of the best mule jacks in the county. He will serve for $7.00 to insure a living colt. Care will be taken to prevent accidents, but not responsible should any occur. Mares will be fed at cost and pastured at $2.00 per month after May 1st.

This stock will be found at the stables of J. C. Browning, 6 miles west of Columbia and one mile from Milltown. Money due when colt is foaled, mare traded or removed from the neighborhood. Not responsible for accidents. For further information address fine. Some are ready for planting corn, while others are not through breaking.

In the last week we find the fruit crop is not so heavy as was thought to be.

Mr. Wm. Kirtley made a trip to Campbellsville last week.

A. O. Young, who has been laid up with a sprained ankle, was able to drive up to see after his saw mill last week.

Mr. Gaither Bryant and wife, of Gadberry, visited Mr. Butler Bryant and family last Sunday.

Miss Clara Garnett will teach Zion school. Our school is small, but we are very lucky to get a first-class teacher.

I infer from the chat that's going, we'll have a colt show this fall to see who has the finest Peacock colt, as every one thinks mine's the finest.

Several from here attended the singing at Tabor last Sunday, and report a nice time.

Aunt Polly Montgomery, who is now 85 years of age, is enjoying good health for one of her age.

Personal

Capt. W. W. Bradshaw is said to be some better.

Mr. W. A. Coffey attended the Republican State Convention.

Dr. J. H. Grady was in Jamestown last Wednesday and Thursday.

Mr. Luther Williams, Montpelier, spent Sunday night in Columbia.

Mr. E. V. Miller, Crocus, is in Louisville this week, purchasing goods.

An infant child of Mr. and Mrs. Rollin Browning, who has been quite sick, is better.

Mr. David Baker and Master Bryan McGee, Burkesville, were here the first of the week.

Mrs. L. L. Rounds and daughter, Miss Ione, returned from Russell Springs Saturday.

Mrs. Berdie Stephens and Miss Kate Simpson, Jamestown, visited Mrs. C. C. Holt last week.

Miss Ada May Jones, Jamestown, is spending a few weeks with her cousin, Miss Katie Murrell.

Mrs. W. F. Cartwright, who has been visiting a daughter in Tennessee, returned home Saturday.

Miss Annie Kinnard and James H., her brother, were visiting at Dr. Menzies Saturday and Sunday.

Mrs. Susan Page, Mrs. Sallie Cofer and son, Charles Dewey, of Cane Valley, paid The News a pleasant call last Monday.

Mr. Geo. Rosenfield has accepted a position with a Nashville millinery establishment and left for that city last Saturday morning.

Mrs. E. W. Barnett, who has been in wretched health for quite awhile, is being treated in the McChord Sanitarium, Lebanon. Her sister, Miss Jennie Barnett, is with her.

Mrs. Nancy Smythe and son, Mr. J. E. Smythe, City License Inspector, Kansas City, and Mrs. Lizzie Seymour, all of Kansas City, are visiting the family of Mr. H. N. Smythe.

Dr. C. C. Patterson and Miss Lena Patterson, Mr. H. R. Turner and wife, Messrs. W. R. and R. J. Lyon, Campbellsville, and Mr. Reed Caldwell, Burdick, attended the funeral services of Robert Coffey.

Eld. Z. T. Williams and wife left this morning for Olympia Springs, Casey, Ky. Mrs. Williams is a great sufferer from a violent rheumatism. Her husband has been advised that the trip is great for her in this water, and she will be absent two weeks.

Rev. W. T. Salmon, of this county, graduated with high honors from the Cumberland Theological University, Lebanon, Tenn., last week. Rev. Salmon has accepted a call from the Dixon, Tennessee, Presbyterian church and will enter upon his work in about two weeks. He is now at home.

"Uncle" Solomon Turpen, who has been visiting a brother in Tennessee and a sister in Wayne county, Ky., returned home last Saturday night. Mr. Turpen is 83 years old, but he made his rounds with perfect ease, and to-day he is in fine health and steps much quicker than many men who have not reached sixty-five years of age.

Rev. C. R. Payne and family will leave for Burkesville to-day. Mr. Payne's object in leaving Columbia is well-known, as it has been frequently stated in this paper. We regret very much to part with him and his excellent little family, as he is a very enterprising gentleman. Rev. Payne will be the principal of the new school at Burkesville.

THE M. AND F., HIGH SCHOOL NOTES.

SUNDAY, MAY 17.

The Rev. J. R. Crawford will preach at the Presbyterian church. The services will be for the pupils of the school, and the people of Columbia are invited to be present.

MONDAY EVENING, MAY 18.

A Recital by the pupils of Mr. Ohlenmacher.

WEDNESDAY EVENING, MAY 20.

A Piano Recital by six young ladies, pupils of Mr. Ohlenmacher. There will be two numbers by the chorus class at this recital.

THURSDAY EVENING, MAY 21.

Mr. Ohlenmacher, Pianist, will play in concert, assisted by his pupil, Miss Martha Hancock. Admission, 35 cents. These Recitals will be given at the Presbyterian church, beginning at 8 o'clock. Tickets for the first two will be given by pupils of the school. For Mr. Ohlenmacher's Recital, they will be sold in the vestibule.

Mr. Joe Miller visited his home from Friday till Monday.

Miss Nell Miller, one of our former pupils, was here for the May Day exercises and spent the week with her aunt here.

The board of trustees and the patrons of the school regret very much that Mr.

Darnall will not be here next year. Mr. Darnall will teach in the Center College Preparatory at Danville, and will be connected with the Modern Language Department of the Graduate School of the University, in which he will be a candidate for the degree of M. A. next June.

Mr. Darnall and Miss Reed will take the school for a picnic Friday. The primary and intermediate pupils will be out Thursday, which will be the last day of school. Examinations for the advanced pupils will be held on the mornings of Monday and Tuesday, next week.

Master Otha Miller was ill several days last week.

Cyrus Williams, of Montpelier, visited his sister, Miss Mary Williams, here last week.

The outside reading for this week in the American Literature Class is from Hubbard's "Little Journeys to the Homes of American Authors."

A change in the arrangement for the Recitals was necessary. They will be held at the Presbyterian church instead of at the school building.

Dr. Doeker, of Louisville, will be unable to come to Columbia next Sunday, as was announced. It is a great pleasure to say that Mr. Crawford, of Burkesville, will preach in Dr. Doeker's place. The service will be held at the Presbyterian church at 11 o'clock. Mr. Ohlenmacher, with the chorus class, will conduct the music.

The Class in Ancient History closed Monday afternoon. The history work for the week will consist of a written review of the study of the Roman Empire.

The periods on Wednesday and Thursday afternoons will be used by the classes studying the Histories of Literature, in a game which has several interesting features. This is made of pictures and dates of authors with cards on which are the titles of books.

Born, to the wife of Tol Dohoney, a boy May 10.

For Sale

ROLLER MILL AND River Bottom FARM

Dr. E. J. Graham has placed in my hands, for sale, his Roller Mill, Corn Mill, and Farm situated on Little Barren river, on the Greensburg and Munfordsville road, 1 mile east of Defriese, Kentucky.

The Roller Mill is a very fine mill, Planifter System, late improved Stands and Rolls; three double stands 7 by 17. A splendid flour maker—can't be beat. Capacity 30 to 35 barrels per day. Run by water power.

The Corn Mill is in the same building as the roller mill. It is in fine condition; 2 run of burrs, large size—makes the best meal. It will be sold with the roller mill.

The Farm adjoins the mill property, and consists of 60 acres; 30 acres first-class river bottom, the remainder strong upland, well improved; good dwelling house, two stories high, 7 rooms, 2 porches; 2 good barns, and other buildings. Plenty of hew wood and a good orchard. This is a very desirable home.

The purchaser of the mill property will have the refusal of the farm. BOTH MUST SELL. Possession of the mill will be given at once, and possession of the farm to be given December 25, next. Prices and Terms Reasonable.

Any one desiring to purchase said property, and desiring further information should call on, or write Dr. E. J. Graham, Hodgins, Ky., or J. H. Graham, Greensburg, Ky.

THE NEED OF THE STRONG MAN.

Written for the News.

Paul's exhortation to the Corinthian Christians, "Quit you like men, be strong," never needed stronger urging than to-day.

The command itself is a stirring one. It rings like the authoritative utterance of a military chieftain.

In imagination we can see the shadowy outlines of the warlike hostes preparing for the work of defense or aggression; and as, in the dim distance, the banner of the advancing foe is seen fluttering in the breeze, and as the heavy strains of the martial music are heard, indicating their advance movement, the voice of the commander in a calm, measured tones is heard saying, "Be brave; be bold; stand to your places in the hour of conflict; quit you like men, be strong."

Thus on the field where right is arrayed against wrong, truth against error, sin against holiness. The Great Commander comes to the hosts of truth, right and holiness saying, "You see the banner of the enemy in the distance, you can see their number and might; the contest will be long and severe; but stand every man to his place in the ranks and we will win like men.

Never in the world's history, to my mind, has there been a time when men, men of principle of firmness, of strong character were more needed than to-day.

Some of the things that are to-day degrading our youth and leading them down in the pathway of darkness, is the attending of the theater, dancing halls, the card table, horse racing and saloons; and the chief dangers attached to these evils, and that which renders it a delicate matter for men to assume an attitude of hostility to, is that among the patrons of and apologists for these social customs, are some of our good men and women. As to moral and social worth, were it not for the infusion of this element into these evils, they would fall to pieces as a result of their unworthiness. To antagonize these false social customs, sustained and upheld by the wealth and culture of many of our towns and cities, to brand that as wrong and corrupting which wealth and social position, declare to be right, chaste and elevating, requires a degree of heroism scarcely below that of the martyrs during the dark days of blood and persecution; still a strong, thoughtful man will and must oppose these and all kindred vices.

Men, rely on yourselves, take it for granted that you can accomplish your plans and let them be honest and elevating; never say "I can't," they are the most ignoble words you ever hear; they simply brand us cowards, unless used in refusing to commit a wrong. He who does not feel within himself the power to conquer fate, is not a man in the true sense of the word. He will never be of any benefit to himself nor to the world.

They man who says "I will," who says it from the bottom of his heart and means it, who bends his whole energy to the accomplishing of any thing in life, will succeed as a rule. Then it is that men call him lucky, when in fact his luck was brought about by his own persevering efforts, and by his confidence in his ability to succeed. Fortunes, detest cowardice, and the man who will not be conquered by trifles is a prime favorite and should be recognized by the world. No man ever came to true greatness who has not felt in some degree that his life belongs to his race, and what God gives him He gives it for mankind. It is impossible to make a man of worth out of one who has no reliable character for a backbone. A man without character will absorb whatever he comes in contact with, that is easy to absorb, and the very easiest thing there is to drink into one's nature, is the sin that lies around us.

Doctor Holland was a strict temperance man. When asked as to his habits he said: "I never drink wine nor give it to my guests. Strong drink is the curse of the country and the age—sixty thousand men, in America, lie down in the drunkard's grave every year. Drink has murdered my best friends and I hate it. It burdens us with taxes, and I denounce it as a nuisance on which every honest and strong man should put his heel."

Therefore, it is up to you men who love your friends, yourselves, your families and your God to stand up for right at all times, even if you are made the censure of the rich and lovers of society.

The World's Best Climate

is not entirely free from diseases, on the high elevations fevers prevail, while on the lower levels malaria is encountered to a greater or less extent, according to altitude. To overcome climate affections, malaria, jaundice, biliousness, fever and ague, and general debility, the most effective remedy is Electric Bitters, the great alterative and blood purifier, the antidote for every form of bodily weakness, nervousness, and insomnia. Sold under guarantee at T. E. Paul's drug store. Price 50c.

A turkey hen eats no more, and probably cost less to keep for a year, than the chicken hen. Watch the flock at feeding time, as the grain is scattered, and if turkeys and chickens eat together it will be seen that the turkeys pick up no more, and probably much less grain than their smaller and quicker neighbors. They are invariably better foragers. Even in winter they find something here and there and everywhere, while the chickens stay in their snug quarters and wait for food to be brought to them.

CROCUS.

Born. to the wife of Levy Turner, a girl.

Miss Hattie Antle and brother visited relatives at Glensfork Sunday.

Mr. B. S. Miller, who has been sick for five weeks is very much improved and was at his store Saturday.

Miss Lois Hadley visited her cousin, Miss Eliza Vaughan, last week.

Mrs. J. P. Miller and Miss Nell, visited at Columbia from Friday till Sunday.

Several of the young folks attended the singing at Glensfork Sunday.

Mr. Walter Antle's condition remains about the same.

Mr. Bass Campbell, Creelsboro, was in our midst a few days ago buying sheep.

Mrs. Mary Ellen Collins was in a feeble condition several days of last week.

Mr. Crit Bradshaw was in Columbia Wednesday.

Rev. G. R. Abrel delivered a very interesting sermon Sunday morning at Mt. Zion.

Mr. Joe Miller was at home Saturday and Sunday.

Mrs. Ida Nelson, who has been sick for three months improves very slowly.

Mrs. Annison Morgan died at her home Sunday night at 9 o'clock. The funeral was held by Rev. G. R. Abrel and the interment Monday. She was a devoted christian, being a member of the Baptist church. To the surviving husband who has been faithful for so many years, the entire community extends its sympathy. She leaves a husband, 13 children and a host of friends to mourn their loss.

The Kentucky Press Association will hold its next meeting at Cerulean Springs the week of June 15. This was decided at a meeting of the executive committee, held at the Seelbach. The program arranged also includes trips to Hopkinsville and Mammoth Cave, where extensive preparations for the entertainment of the pencilpushers will soon be completed. Invitations were also received from Henderson. After a great deal of good-natured discussion the invitation from Hopkinsville was combined with the two from Mammoth Cave and Cerulean Springs.

It has been announced that the Prince of Wales will visit Canada in July and the occasion will be made elaborate by the presence of a British battleship fleet and also ships from other nations which have been invited to participate in the festivities.

Valued Same as Gold.

INROAD

The health of this community is very good at present.

Farmers are getting along very slow with their crops on the account of rainy weather.

Mrs. Margaret Turner is very low at this writing.

Rev. Hunt preached a very interesting sermon at Hopewell, Sunday night. The youngsters had a very funny time coming home through the rain. Mr. Everett Dudley said it was the first time he ever wished for it to rain and lightning so he could see his way home. Come again Dudley.

We are going to have plenty of telephones in this neighborhood. J. N. Petty is running a line from this place to Fairplay, F. S. Guthrie and W. L. Strange is running a line from M. A. Armstrongs to W. L. Stranges. If the rainy weather will continue we will have them completed in a few days.

Prof. Coffey and J. V. Dudley will have an all day singing at Republican the third Sunday in May. Everybody invited.

Mr. Leo Brockman of Amandaville, has bought the entire stock of goods from Robert Rowe.

Mr. E. A. Morgan of this place, is lying at his uncles at Burkesville, very sick at this writing.

Mr. G. E. Morgan is covering his barn this week, he began putting his corses on from the top. It has been raining and he says it don't turn water at all.

Neighbor Hatcher one of our up to-date shoe drummers called on our merchants Tuesday.

Mr. J. N. Petty is having a very hard time plowing in the sandbar, he says he don't think his corn will grow to be much good.

W. E. Morgan passed through here en route for Montpelier, Wednesday.

Mr. John Holladay passed through here with a nice bunch of cattle Wednesday.

Mrs. J. N. Petty visited Mrs. Margaret Turner, Sunday evening.

They are putting up a gasoline mill at Amandaville, this week.

How to Cure Your Piles

If sufferers from piles and rectal diseases would first try a reliable laxative like Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin instead of using external salves and suppositories, or having an operation performed, they would save themselves a world of trouble, expense and pain. The reason is that in nine cases out of ten piles are the result of habitual constipation, and when once the constipation is thoroughly cured the piles disappear.

Piles are to bad blood, simply an outward symptom. And just as face lotions are good for pimples as a good blood medicine, so salves and suppositories are good for piles as a reliable laxative like Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. A Syrup or a bottle will prove these claims, and every druggist is authorized to guarantee the cure. Hundreds of people have written us that Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is the best pill cure they have ever used, with a trial from you. Not only will it cure the piles but it will permanently correct bowel trouble so that you will have regular movements. It will tone the stomach and make digestion easy for you. Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is the best remedy for constipation, dyspepsia, biliousness, flatulency, and all resultant troubles, such as piles, arising from disordered stomach, liver or bowels. Its gentle action and pleasant taste makes it especially suited to children and old who are too weak to stand purgative waters, salts and gripping powders and tablets. A Syrup is not what pile sufferers need, but steadily, every bowel movement, and there can be obtained the use of this wonderful remedy, it brings about a permanent cure at a minimum of expense.

FREE TEST Those wishing to try Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin before buying can have a free sample bottle sent to their home by enclosing the coupon. This offer is to prove that the remedy will do as we claim, and is only open to those who have never used it. Send for it if you have any symptoms of stomach, liver or bowel disease. Guaranteed most effective medicine for children, women and the aged. A guaranteed, permanent home cure. THE PUBLIC REMEDY CO., 119 Caldwell Bldg., Monticello, Ill.

WITH OUR CORRESPONDENTS

Week's Happenings—News Important or Otherwise as Reported By Our Corps of Correspondents.

GRADYVILLE.

The weather has been cold for the last few days.

W. L. Grady spent a day or so in Columbia last week.

Eugene Hall spent last Sunday in Edmonston.

Senator Nell is spending this week in Louisville and Frankfort.

Messrs. C. Gowen and W. S. Pickett, of Keltner, were here last Friday.

Our old friend, J. Cager Yates, Bradfordsville, spent last Sunday in our midst.

Mr. J. N. Coffey, of Columbia, Misses Kate and Bettie Smith and Mr. L. S. Smith were guests of Mr. L. M. Wilmore and family one day last week.

Rev. Crawford, of Burksville, filled the pulpit at Union last Sunday with a very interesting discourse.

Mr. J. A. Diddle attended the sale at Mr. Landers, near Fry, last Thursday.

Messrs. Strong Hill, Mark Wilson and H. S. Bell were transacting business in Columbia last Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Wilmore were called to the bedside of Mrs. J. W. Thompson, of Milltown one day last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Moore, we are glad to note are able to be on the stage of action again.

Mr. Rollin Kinnaird, of Nell, was with our business men last Friday.

Mr. Geo. H. Nell is in Cumberland county this week looking after cattle.

James Gilpin, one of Sparksville's up-to-date business men, was here Friday looking after lumber.

Mr. A. D. Patteson, of Columbia, was in our midst last Friday attending to official business.

Mr. G. A. Coomer and family, who came here a few months ago from Jeffersonville, Ind., have disposed of their possessions and will leave for North Dakota in a few days.

Mr. Leon Shuffitt, of Keltner, is about through setting his crop of tobacco. Who can beat this for the first of May?

Rev. Johnston, of Columbia, passed through here last Friday on his return from Monroe county where he had spent a few days with his relatives.

Mr. Geo. Flowers and family, of Columbia, spent a few days here the first of the week visiting the family of Mr. C. O. Moss.

Mrs. J. N. Coffey, of Columbia, spent a few days in this community last week visiting relatives.

Mr. Charles Murrell, of Columbia, passed through here last Monday enroute to Edmonston where he will meet his many customers in the interest of the Adair County News.

Mr. Mitchel Denny, the well known blacksmith, of this town, will be connected in a few days with the outside world by telephone. If you want cheap work done, the only thing to do is to press the button.

Your reporter had the pleasure of calling on Mr. A. J. Gowen, the well known merchant, of Basil, and we found him to have a nice clean stock of general merchandise, and enjoying a good trade.

We have heard a great deal of comment on fine colts around here for the past month or so. Some think one has the finest and others think some one else has the finest. Agreeable to the ideas of your servant, Chapman Browning has one of the best colts that has been to this town this Spring, and it is Coach.

One of our best farmers and one who always makes a good crop no difference what kind of season we have is no less than Robert Grady, a colored man. He is highly respected by both white and black, and he has a nice quiet family that attends to its own business, and we know to our certain knowledge that he has plenty of this world's goods and some to spare if necessary. We further know that he has had a phone in his dwelling for the past two years, and we never have heard of any of them taking the receiver down unless they were called for. They attend to their own business strictly. If you are in need of a load of corn or wheat you don't have to pass Roberts'. Your reporter was in conversation with him a few days ago on the fowl question, and he informed us that his wife had about 150 young chickens and 25 young turkeys. He is also a subscriber of the Adair county News. Give us more colored men like Robert Grady.

GLENFORK.

Born to the wife of Lawrence Wilkinson on April 30, a daughter.

Rev. Crouch filled his regular appointment at the M. E. church last Sunday.

Miss Media Pettet of Inroad, is visiting Miss Annie Dudley last week.

Mr. W. P. Phelps is some better at this writing.

The most gigantic theft that has occurred in this section for some time took place Sunday night the 3rd inst, when thieves broke into the smokehouse of Dr. James Hammond taking about 500 pounds of meat. A search warrant was sworn out but the meat has not been found neither is there any clue to the identity of the thieves.

We are glad to note the increased volume of trade that is coming to this place. For several years our trade has been growing and at the present Glenville is one of the most important trade centers in this part of the state. We have three complete stocks of general merchandise and a full line of drugs. We also have three of as clever line of merchants as Kentucky soil will grow.

Died on the 3rd inst, Mrs. Morgan, wife of Anderson Morgan. Her death was not unexpected as she had been in a very low state of health for some time. She leaves two sons, James and Uriah Morgan and an aged and feeble husband to mourn her loss.

CRAYCRAFT.

May is here but the rain continues. Maybe it will quit and maybe won't.

J. A. Richards sold three steers to Clem Burton for sixty-six dollars; Sam Pierce sold two to R. A. Waggoner for twenty-eight dollars.

M. D. Grider and wife visited at Cane Valley last week.

T. A. Wolford and wife, of Dunnville, were visiting at M. D. Grider's last week.

Rev. S. T. Williams filled his appointment at Concord last Sunday.

From observation, we see the race for congress is warming up. Mr. Matthews many charges against Congressman Edwards are falling short of their purpose, as the people are beginning to see there are two sides to the question. It is very easy to make charges, but the proof of the pudding is in the eating and right there is where the turning point is located. The Republicans of this part were about to be carried away by the sentiment of Mr. Edwards's falling to sign the petition to pardon Caleb Powers, but proof being lacking they are returning to Mr. Edwards.
